

Curating Cranbrook 2018

Friday 23 March 2018

There are three art events this evening in the Rotunda precinct. Please stay until dusk and experience them all!

6.45pm: Art Exhibition

Opened by Sculpture by the Sea Founder and Director, David Handley OC.
Canapes and drinks will be served.

Carter Hall

The exhibition will remain open on Saturday 24 and Sunday 25 March 10.30am – 3.30pm.

7.45pm: LIVE LIGHT EVENT FOR ONE NIGHT ONLY!

Volunteers who will be part of the Field of Light event and have booked through Trybooking will receive packages of instructions prior to the event.

Please remember your group's colour, and bring along one of the gloves supplied!

A Field of Orbs will be formed from 100 lights, representing Cranbrook's Centenary, controlled by a cross section of the Cranbrook community.

Hordern Oval

OPENING OF AN EXHIBITION BY ANGUS MORDANT OC

Celebrating the Century – Old Cranbrookians Now

John Saunders Pavilion (Rotunda)

Please RSVP www.trybooking.com/UIVD

For further enquiries please contact

Melissa Berry, mberry@cranbrook.nsw.edu.au

Light orbs controlled and photographed by Year 11 Photography students, Hordern Oval, October 2017